Cllr Shepherd asked Cllr Bubb if he had approached any new advertisers, Cllr Bubb advised it was a role he would undertake once he was no longer Editor.

He would approach some of the advertisers in other local magazines that do not advertise in Village Voice.

Previously raffle prizes had included bottles of wine, last night a tea towel and washing up liquid was a prize. It was felt the price had increased but less was offered. Mr Martyn advised raffle tickets were not sold but included in the price.
